

A super natural phenomenon, turns things upside down. Fast and furious with reverse gear of earth rotation, makes it a night mare for humans, but a fortnight to remember for our helpers, which are simple machines and man-made tools.

In-animates which were inmates finally taste the sweetness of freedom. All of sudden the inanimate objects acquire properties of living beings. Now humans are struck, petrified and puzzled, neither able to talk nor walk.

What will it be for inanimate acquiring human-ness while humans remain lifeless?

Can in-animates deal with the sudden superiority? Hold tight and take a leap into the Adventures of in-animates.

Welcome to World Of Reciprocals.
